

Data Protection Policy for Castle Farm Guest House, Fotheringhay.

We are committed to ensuring the best standards of practice in all our activities. Visitors to our website can be assured that the protection of privacy and confidentiality are given the highest priority. All personal information is collected, held and used in strict compliance with the Data Protection Act 1998.

Information Collected

We do not collect any personal information from visitors to our website other than that which is knowingly and voluntarily given. Cookies are not used to collect any information from visitors to the website that could be used to identify an individual user. Visitors to the site interested in requesting more information can request this by emailing and cannot be contacted unless this is asked for.

Use of Information

Telephone numbers or email addresses given in the process of making reservations or enquiries are used purely for the purpose of a contact point for queries or alterations to the booking. We will not use your information to contact you for any other purpose. We will NEVER sell your details to any third party.

Registration details are a legal requirement and will be kept securely for the necessary period of time and then destroyed .

Data Security

We take appropriate measures to safeguard the information we hold from unauthorized access or improper use. Any information supplied to us from our online booking channels is stored in a secure, password-protected location, which no unauthorized user has access to.